Captain's Letter

The May Social was a tremendous success thanks to Mary Ryan our social chair, and Julie Mohn and Jan Watson our tournament chairs. The weather was great and it was wonderful to meet so many new members! The RLGA member handbook has been published and was passed out to everyone at the Social. If you didn't receive a copy, just ask a board member to get one for you from our cabinet in the pro shop the next time you're at the course. Many thanks to Linda Selegue for preparing this year's handbook and to Heather Cooper for updating our membership database.

Our next event is the Red White and Blue tournament on June 22—this is a really fun format and I hope you will plan on participating. Don't forget, if you want to play competitive golf this summer, there are loads of opportunities for you: the GSWPGA, WSWPLA, TWGA, WSGA and PNGA all have events coming up at some fun courses. Check out the RLGA bulletin board for details. See you on the course!

GSWPGA Team Results

RLGA Ladies had a great day to play golf and all played well. Ok Yun Lim, Diane Gifford, Dawn Duby, Elana Bryan and Kathy Provazek all participated. They took 9 out of 9 scratch and 4 1/2 out of 9 handicap points. Considering how many strokes these ladies had to give this was fantastic. Way to go Ladies!

WSWPLA Sweeps

In the April Sweeps RLGA's Fran Zickes tied for 2nd place in her flight. Great Job Fran!!

Rules by Sharma

Have you ever asked your playing partners how far you were from the green? Or, after a great shot have you been asked what club you used? These might sound like innocent questions but in fact it's a two-stroke penalty in stroke play or a loss-of-hole penalty in match play under Rule 8. During a round a player shall not give advice to anyone in the competition except her partner and may ask for advice only her partner or either of their caddies.

Examples of advice that can't be asked for or given are club selection, swing tips, or recommendations on a course of action, such as laying up or going for the green. But there are some questions that are allowed. A player may ask about club selection after all involved have played their shots. Information on the Rules or on matters of public information, such as the position of hazards or the flagstick on the putting green, is not advice. A player may ask anyone about the distance from a permanent object to another permanent object, including the putting green. But she may ask only her partner or either of their caddies about the distance from a non-permanent object, such as her ball.

The other sub-section of Rule 8-2 covers what may be done to indicate the line of play to the player. When the ball is not on the putting green, the line of play may be indicated by anyone, but not while the stroke is being played. When the ball is on the putting green, the player, the player's partner, or either of their caddies may point out a line for putting, but the putting green cannot be touched. Again, this may not occur during the stroke.

So remember asking or giving advice -- defined as any counsel or suggestion which could influence a player in determining her play, the choice of a club, or the method of making a stroke -- from anyone other than only her partner or either of their caddies is strictly prohibited. If you don't have a caddie or a partner it's just you and the Golf Gods.

Equitable Stroke Control

The new way to adjust scores with Equitable Stroke Control sets a maximum number that a player can post on any hole depending on the player's Course Handicap. When posting, you are limited to the number of strokes you can take on each hole. This chart shows the maximum number.

As an example, if you have a 26 handicap you are allowed a maximum number of 8 on any hole when posting your score for Handicap purposes. During a tournament you would want to enter your total gross score to the tournament committee. But when posting to the GHIN system, you would enter the adjusted ESC score.

ADJUST YOUR SCORES Equitable Stroke Control

18-Hole Course Handicap	Maximum Number Posted on Any Hole
9 or less	Double Bogey
10 to 19	7
20 to 29	8
30 to 39	9
40 or more	10

Tee Off Against Breast Cancer

Founded in 1996, the Rally For A Cure® with Golf For Women Magazine program has raised awareness of breast cancer and taken the life-saving message of early detection to hundreds of thousands of active women. Golfers at 2,800-plus clubs in all 50 states and 2 foreign countries answered the call in 2002 to fight breast cancer and to support the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation through the Rally For A Cure campaign. Since the program's inception, more than 8.5 million dollars of much-needed funds have been generated through Rally For A Cure events for the Komen Foundation - most of these funds were raised by fundraising activities at Rally events.

The mission of Rally For A Cure is to educate women about the steps that can be taken to combat this life-threatening disease.

RLGA will host Rally For A Cure at Riverbend on September 14. It will be a four person scramble format. Mark your calendars and spread the word to all your friends. This event is open to everyone - members, non-members, men, women and junior golfers. Please plan to attend.
