

Rules for Competition Play

-Eligibility– Player eligibility for competitions will require that they hold membership in good standing, have a handicap, and compete with at least one other eligible RLGA member who must attest your scorecard. A Player may enter a competition multiple times.

- Competitions will be closed during RLGA Tournaments. (playing in a Competition during an RLGA Tournament is not allowed.)

-. Enter your name, the date and your current course handicap on the sign-up sheet before your start your round.

-. Enter your first and last name, the date and your current course handicap on your scorecard.

-. After completing your round, check your scorecard entries and have another RLGA member attest your scorecard.

-. SCORES MUST BE POSTED to win. Post your score (after ESC adjustment) in the computer. Competition scores are NOT to be posted as tournament scores. *

-. Put your completed scorecard in the RLGA drop box in the Pro Shop.

* There have been several players' competition entries disqualified, due to non-posting, in the past. In the Standing Rules of RLGA (Item D – Score Cards, #5) All scores must be posted within two weeks of the date of the round was played. Failure to do so may result in penalty and/or loss of handicap. Any exceptions to this must be presented to the Handicap Chairperson for approval by the Board.
